REGARDING ALLERGENS AND INTOLERANCES

The Selkie team take allergen concerns very seriously and have procedures in place to ensure the safety of our customers. Our chefs and staff follow strict protocols to try and avoid cross-contamination, but we cannot guarantee that our kitchen and food preparation areas are entirely free from allergens.

It is the responsibility of the customer to inform our staff of any allergies or dietary restrictions before placing their order, and we will make every effort to accommodate their requests. However, please note that we cannot guarantee the complete absence of cross-contamination, as we are a small kitchen and use shared cooking and preparation areas.

Please note that some of our dishes may contain or come into contact with common allergens, such as wheat, gluten, dairy, nuts, peanuts, soy, fish, shellfish, and egg. If you have any concerns or questions about allergens, we encourage you to speak with our staff, or refer to the allergen information provided on our menu.

Please be aware that even if a particular dish is marked or designed as gluten-free or allergen-free, additional allergens may be present in our kitchen, and we cannot guarantee that our food is free from allergens. Customers with severe allergies or who are extraordinarily concerned about the risk of cross-contamination should assess their own dietary needs and make a decision accordingly.
